Course Commitments: AMI Orientation Certificate Course

The AMI Orientation Certificate Course is designed to enable the participant to develop an understanding of the basic Montessori principles underlying the Montessori Approach to Education.

The AMI Orientation Certificate Course comprises 30 hours online plus approximately 30 hours of independent study. Plus 9 hours of observation tasks.

In order to obtain the AMI Orientation Certificate Course, the following requirements must be fulfilled:

- A minimum of 90% attendance is required for all lectures and sessions during the stipulated online and offline hours. The orientation course is delivered fully online, and cameras must be on at all times during online sessions; otherwise, the participant will be marked absent.
- Submission of 3 essays (min. 500 words each) chosen from the topics designated; each reflecting a basic understanding of the chosen topic.
- Completion of 9 hours of Child Observation and submission of the notes and summaries taken during the observations following the given guidelines. Completion of material making as undertaken during the course.
- The AMI Orientation Certificate Course will be sent to the participant once all the assignments have been submitted and assessed; providing that the participant has the required minimum attendance.
- The AMI Orientation Course is delivered fully online. (Guidelines Apply)

*If the student purchases the required books from the Manama Montessori Center, additional shipping and delivery fees may apply.

I have read and understood the above terms and conditions and agree to abide by the same. I would like my name on the AMI Orientation Certificate to be written as (please print your name clearly as you would it to appear on your digital certificate)

Digital Course Content Agreement and Attendance Requirement

This agreement outlines the terms and conditions for the course provided by Manama Montessori Training Center (MMTC) and the AMI Trainer.

Use of Course Content

A substantial amount of course material—including printed resources and digital video recordings—will be provided to students enrolled in this course. All course content is intended exclusively for the personal use and study of the registered student and is strictly limited to those who have completed full enrollment in the course.

All course materials are the intellectual property of MMTC and its trainers. Students are strictly prohibited from copying, sharing, or distributing any digital content provided during the course in any form, including but not limited to:

- Posting digital content online on any websites, forums, or social media platforms. Sharing content via email, messaging applications, or other electronic means.
- Reproducing or transmitting course content in any other manner.

Acknowledgment and Consent

By signing below, the undersigned agrees to:

- Use all digital and printed course materials solely for personal study purposes.
- Refrain from distributing or sharing any course materials with individuals outside the registered course group.

Disclaimer

The course schedule and timing are subject to change in the event of unforeseen circumstances.

Course fees, including fees for books, are non-refundable in cases of non-attendance or withdrawal.

Legal Clause

The undersigned acknowledges that MMTC reserves the right to pursue full legal action in the event of any breach of this agreement.
